Dear Ms. Selkirk and Ms. Heydon:

Thank you very much for your letter. We appreciate the opportunity to listen to your priorities for Ontario. We share your commitment to Ontario's future and believe that with more and better jobs, we can do what's necessary to bring about the change Ontario needs.

I'm excited about our Million Jobs Plan—a plan to bring jobs back to Ontario, stop overspending, balance the budget and keep our debt from growing. Our plan relies on the notion that government should be smaller, but what it does, it does better. Our priorities for this election can be found at www.millionjobsplan.com

We need to face our challenges honestly and compassionately. It won't be easy, but it can be done and it will be worth it. I know we can build a previously unimagined Ontario, but it's going to take some courage and a willingness to challenge the failed status quo. That's what our Ontario PC Million Jobs Plan delivers. We are asking government to tighten its belt, the way everyday Ontarians have, so that one million men and women out of work will have a shot at solid, good-paying jobs.

We've got a job to do. It's time to get Ontario working better.

Sincerely,

Tim Hudak
Leader, Ontario PC Party

Hello,

Thank you for this letter. Could you please confirm whether there will be a further communication to respond to the questions? It wasn't clear from the letter whether this it was an acknowledgement of the request and the response to the questions will come later, or if the letter is the full response. We want to make sure we send our members complete information.

Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Ms. Heydon,

I hope you're well! Thanks very much for your email. The Ontario PC campaign is responding to surveys by pointing stakeholders to our Million Jobs Plan in a directed letter. We are proud to have a very focused plan to bring jobs back to Ontario, and we want to be sure to point organizations to our platform. The PC Party firmly believes with a strong and vibrant economy, all Ontarians stand to benefit.

We greatly appreciate the information we receive from important causes such as the Association of Family Health Teams of Ontario. We diligently compile the information we receive from outside groups, so we have a record should we form government. We are glad you were able to share your information with us, and help us build familiarity around your issues.

Please feel free to send us any additional information that you believe would be important to include for our records. We look forward to staying in touch - please feel free to use the stakeholders@ontariopc.com email address for correspondence in the period during and immediately after the campaign should you want to stay in touch.

Best Regards,

Ontario PC Party
